Bow Street Magistrates' Court.

To all and each of the Constables of the Metropolitan Police Force.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable James Callaghan

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by order under his Hand and Seal, has signified to Me, Chief Metropolitan Stipendiary Magistrate, sitting at Bow Street Magistrates' Court, that requisition has been duly made to him for the surrender of

James Earl Ray

(hereinafter called the Defendant) suspected and accused of the commission of the crime of murder, to wit on 4th April 1968 in Shelby County, State of Tennessee did unlawfully, feloniously, wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly and of his malice aforethought kill and murder Martin Luther King, Junior within the jurisdiction of the United States of America

THIS IS THEREFORE TO COMMAND YOU in Her Majesty's name, forthwith to apprehend the said Defendant pursuant to "The Extradition Act, 1870", wherever he may be found in the United Kingdom or Isle of Man, and bring him before Me, or some other Magistrate sitting in this Court, to show cause why he should not be surrendered in pursuance of the said Extradition Act, for which this shall be your warrant.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Bow Street, one of the Magistrates' Courts of the said City, this 13th day of June in the year One Thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight.
