CUSTOMER NOTICE REGARDING U.S. POSTAL SERVICE REGULATIONS

HiWay Pak customers frequently enclose letters within HiWay Pak envelopes to accompany or explain contents. A "letter" is defined as "a message directed to a specific person or address and recorded in or on a tangible object." The U.S. Postal Service regulations require that such letters be accompanied by First Class postage. In such cases you should affix a postage stamp in the proper amount to this HiWay Pak envelope or address label and cancel the stamp.
For specific exceptions to the U.S. Postal Service regulations, please contact your local Purolator station or office.
