IN THE CRIMINAL COURTS OF SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE

STATE OF TENNESSEE	I
VS.	I	NO. 16645
JAMES EARL RAY	I

ORDER WITHDRAWING ITEMS FROM EVIDENCE AND ALLOWING THEIR RETURN TO DEFENDANT

This cause came on for hearing before the Honorable W. Preston Battle, Judge of Division III of the Criminal Courts of Shelby County, Tennessee, by consent of the Counsel for the State and Counsel for the Defendant to permit a 220 Polaroid camera and a brown man's suit of clothing referred to in the stipulations as a Tip Top Tailor's suit, personal property of the Defendant, to be returned to the Defendant.

IT IS FURTHER APPEARING TO THE COURT upon Counsel for the State that these heretofore referred to articles have no probative value as evidence in this cause.

IT IS THEREFORE ACCORDINGLY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the 220 Polaroid camera and the brown suit referred to above be and hereby are ordered to be returned to Defendant or his Counsel.
