January 17, 69.

Dear Jimmy;

Just a few lines to let you know everything is okay, also to let you know that I received your letter.

I figure on visiting you Feb the 3 or 4, I was figuering on seeing you before that but i owe Jack almost Two Hundred and figured i would pay him first, ive paid him all but Fifty so ill be all straightened out before then.

If anything comes up and you want me to come down sooner just say so as it wouldnt make any difference, or if you need any money just let me know, ill bring a few extra dollars down when i come.

Whenever i get a letter from you Jack # Carol either reads them or i tell them what you said, iam letting you know that just in case you ever want to tell them something.

There hasnt been anything News worthy happened since ive last written to you, Jack and Carol Plus everybody else in the family are just fine, Romeo is still hibernating out on the farm.

Imagine Mr. Foreman has been down to see you by the time you get this letter, i wonder how everything is coming along concering the case.

Well there isnt much else to write about so i guess ill close for now.

As ever
Brother
Jerry.
